BUTCHERS AND DRIVERS' BANK,
NEW YORK, March 20, 1861.

At a Meeting of the Board of Directors held this day, the following preamble and resolution were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, the venerable President, Jacob Ains, esq., having fallen ill, it was deemed expedient to postpone his contract to resign the office to which he was elected twenty years since, during which time he has discharged the duties in a manner satisfactory to all, and it was resolved that he be allowed to remain in the position which, with the unanimous consent of his colleagues, he has filled for the first thirty years; and it was also resolved that the first year of his resumption of his services be the first of his term.

It was also resolved that we, the members of this Review which we have so long connected to be served, without tendering to him our sincere wishes, that being relieved from the care and responsibility of the Presidency, his health may be restored, and that his remaining years may be spent in quiet and happiness.
